THE MISSION SHOULD BE FILLED OUT ON YOUR WEEKLY MISSION SHEET.

THIS PAGE IS SUPPORT INFORMATION TO HELP YOU FULFILL YOUR MISSION FOR THE SPECIAL DAY OF YUD DALED KISLEV

Yud Daled Kislev is a very special day for us. It is the day that the Rebbe married Rebbetzin Chaya Mushka, the daughter of the Frieddiker Rebbe. The Rebbe said on his 25th anniversary (יד כסלו תשי"ד) that this day is the day that connected the Rebbe with us and us with him ' ער טאג וואס האט פארבונדן ' "אייד מיט מיר און מיר מיט אייד".

So today is an important time for us to think about and add in our hiskashrus (connection) to the Rebbe.

How do we connect with the Rebbe? One answer to this can be found in the HaYom Yom for סיון. This is what it says there:

"You asked how you can be connected (M'kusher) to me, when I do not know you personally . . ."
 ". . . The true connection is made by learning Torah. When you learn my Ma'amorim, read the Sichos, and connect yourselves with those who are special to me – the Chassidic community and the Tmimim (Bochurim) – in their learning and their Farbrengens, and you do what I ask about saying Tehillim after Davvening, and keeping fixed times for learning Torah – in this is the connection (Hiskashrus)."

Here's what you should do:

- Today's mission is to speak about the Rebbe's Chasunah that was on י"ד כסלו תרפ"ט, and what the Rebbe said about it in תשי"ד (printed above). (See some details about the Rebbe's Chasunah on the back of this page).
- Discuss about how you are connected to the Rebbe and how you can add in your התקשרות. (See the Hiskashrus missions on your mission sheet, watching a video of the Rebbe, hearing stories about the Rebbe saying the Rebbe's Kapitel, the Rebbe's Pesukim in Shmone Esreh, etc.)
- Sing the nigun מהרה ישמע (for example, at the Shabbos table).
- Participate in a Yud Daled Kislev Farbrengen at home or at Shul
